THE FRAMEWORK FOR BUSINESS AGILITY

The Framework for Business Agility is designed to help organisations become more adaptive, creative and resilient.

The framework illustrates the elements required to make any organisation truly agile. Running projects and business operations in an agile way is a key part of business agility, but they won't make an organisation agile on their own. Agile businesses also need an agile strategy including an agile approach to their market.

agilebusiness.org

Agile Business
Consortium